You will need to submit the following at least 4 weeks prior to your Assessment:

- ✓ This Application Form
- ✓ Submission Fee of £170 including VAT
- ✓ Digital files of the main 20 images, supplied as 4000 pixel (longest edge)
 - Number each image from 0001 to 0020
 - The images need to work as a collection
- ✓ Company promotional literature
- ✓ Copies of published work which could include tear sheets, library or gallery sales reports, CV or commissioning contracts / purchase orders
- ✓ Development goals both for your business and you as an individual
- ✓ A health and safety policy, with risk assessment procedures and, if possible, a method statement
- ✓ Current Public Liability and Professional Indemnity insurance policies
- ✓ An outline of your administration and production systems (ie workflow), including process management and quality control
- ✓ Evidence that you are complying with GDPR
- ✓ Copies of briefs given to you, as the photographer, and details of how the assignment was successfully completed
- ✓ Further information on the images contained within the portfolio
- ✓ Your website details and details of any image libraries which hold your work
- ✓ Any other evidence that you feel is appropriate and in support of your submission - this could be a photo book, a portfolio, and/or examples of work outside your main scope of activity

On the day of Assessment, Associate & Fellow Applicants need to bring:

- ✓ The 20 photographs originally sent as digital files, but now printed

These need to be 20x16 or A3 flush or window mounted. How you choose to use (or not use) a border is up to you, but all prints must be consistent. The prints must be numbered in pencil on the back from 1 to 20 to show the order that they need to be displayed.
- ✓ Other supporting evidence

This could be published work, a book or a document. No more than 40 pages.

Terms and Conditions

I agree:

- a To my submission being assessed by a qualified team appointed by the Directors of the British Institute of Professional Photography.
- b That the decision of my membership acceptance and appropriate category by the Directors of the British Institute of Professional Photography shall be final.
