FRIENDS

get to know the BIPP... take the first step

BIPP is an organisation for working professional photographers, but if you're not ready to take that leap into qualified status, or you're not sure you want to turn your photography into a business, there is an alternative.

Be a Friend of the BIPP and you can take advantage of discounts, reduced ticket prices for workshops and professional support... but without putting pressure on yourself to qualify.

There's more information on our website, www.bipp.com/friends, but we've outlined why we believe you may like to be our friend...

We know qualifications aren't for everyone but as a friend of BIPP you could open up a world of benefits, discounts, knowledge and support, which is a vital part of how people become better photographers.

As a Friend of BIPP you'll receive:

Regular emails keeping you up to date with BIPP and industry news

Weekend training & workshops geared towards BIPP Friends

Reduced fees for BIPP's main training programme

The Photographer – your quarterly magazine

Specific Friends' competitions

Access to Regional Events & Awards

Support to help you get to qualification, if you want it

A unique 'Friend of BIPP' logo

Access to BIPP social media, so you can share your ideas and network with other photographers

Discounts on any Portfolio Builders (informal days for small groups of photographers to discover more about the qualification structure) or Reviews (45-60 minute appointments allowing you time to show your images to one of our trained assessors).
